

TAKING KLMUC AND COSMOPOINT COLLEGE TO NEW HEIGHTS

KLMUC and Cosmopoint College holds their 2016 Convocation Ceremony

Shah Alam, 23rd July 2016- Kuala Lumpur Metropolitan University College (KLMUC) and Cosmopoint College, held its 8th and 21st Convocation Ceremony respectively at Setia City Convention Centre last Saturday. Both institutions are under the education arms of Cosmopoint Sdn Bhd.

A sense of pride prevailed in the air as 1,159 students from KLMUC and 1,146 from Cosmopoint College received their scrolls. These students hail from various faculties including Hospitality, Tourism and Wellness, Management and Business Technology, Engineering and Applied Technology, Media Studies, and Design and Creativity, to name a few. The event was proudly celebrated amongst KLMUC and Cosmopoint College's Staff, and was attended by the Chief Executive Officer of Cosmopoint Sdn Bhd and Vice Chancellor of KLMUC, Mohamad Kamal Nawawi.

"As Cosmopoint College and KLMUC celebrate their respective 25th and 10th year anniversary, the success of our students serves as testament to how far our institution has come. For KLMUC we have grown to offer more than 45 programmes in Foundation, Diploma, Degree and MBA levels, whereas for Cosmopoint College we have 11 campuses nationwide, in which over the last 25 years we have produced more than 100,000 successful graduates" said Kamal.

Amongst the students who have particularly excelled in their fields are Muhammad Zahin Aiman, from the Faculty of Management and Business Technology who undertook a degree in Business and Entrepreneurship Development scored an impressive final CGPA of 3.99, and Che Nur Ikhwan Afif Bin Nasaruddin from the Faculty of Media Studies who took a Diploma in Journalism received a final CGPA of 3.97. Both graduates bagged the Vice Chancellor Award for best student.

"I am thrilled beyond words to receive the Vice Chancellor's Award, here at KLMUC I have been taught through "Real World Practice" that perseverance, hard work and dedication is key to success," said Muhammad Zahin.

“The dedication of KLMUC lecturers and its staff contribute greatly to my success, here the lecturers not only prep you on paper but our learning experiences encompass real working world scenarios, I am now better prepared for the professional world out there” Che Nur Ikhwan enthused.

KLMUC’s philosophy can be attributed to the high success rate of the students. Through “Real World Practice,” students venture on a pathway to professional success. KLMUC also prides itself in continuously developing relevant programmes to meet students’ needs, and academic programmes are developed through close consultation with business and industry partners, the public sector and professionals.

‘I would like to express my heartiest congratulations to all our successful graduates, it is because of their hard work and determination, that we continue to grow, and together we take KLMUC to great heights” adds Kamal.

To date, KLMUC has produced home grown professionals ranging from the fashion to the culinary world. One of which includes Masrina Ali Munir, 21, who has participated in several competitions including Anugerah Hijau 2014 and Air Asia Ready Search Designer 2015, and Muhammad Afifi is a budding talent in the culinary field, who has recently won the first prize of Chef Adu’s Cookout Competition in 2015.

All of KLMUC’s and Cosmopoint College’s academic programmes are endorsed and approved by the Ministry of Education and accredited by the Malaysian Qualifications Agency (formerly LAN).
