

From Humble Beginnings to Fulfilling Community Education Needs

Cosmopoint College Sabah and Sarawak Celebrate their 21st Convocation Ceremony

Kota Kinabalu, 27th August 2016- It was an occasion to celebrate as students from Cosmopoint College Sabah and Sarawak received their scrolls for the 21st Convocation Ceremony, the East Malaysia edition, last Saturday. The graduates hailed from faculties such as Business Technology and Accounting, Hospitality and Tourism Management, Creative Design, and Health Sciences.

The occasion was celebrated amongst Cosmopoint College students both from Kota Kinabalu and Kuching, proud parents and Cosmopoint College's staff. Also present at the event was Encik Kamal Nawawi, Chief Executive Officer of Cosmopoint Sdn Bhd.

"Cosmopoint College celebrates its 25th anniversary this year, and the success of our students serve as a testament of how far our institution has come. Since our humble beginnings in 1991 we have now 11 campuses nationwide, and this reflects our commitment in maintaining our stance as the leading providers of affordable quality higher education," Encik Kamal Nawawi said.

This year has also seen an increase in the total number of graduates compared to that of last year. A total number of 731 students graduated this year, marking a 43.6% spike to last year's total of 509.

Noorizan Tadin, best student of the year who bagged the Bestari Award with a final CGPA of 4.00 said, "I am definitely indebted to Cosmopoint College for my accomplishment, being a mother of 3 my pursuit of success hasn't always been easy. I found it difficult initially to juggle between my family and my studies, however with the right guidance, tutelage and my own determination, I have made it to the top and for this I have Cosmopoint College to thank for." Noorizan is a graduate in Pastry Arts from the Faculty of Hospitality and Tourism Management.

To date, Cosmopoint College Sabah and Sarawak offer Diploma programmes in Information Technology, Tourism Management, Culinary Arts, Computer Graphic Design and Business Management, to name a few.

In marking the occasion, a MoU ceremony also took place to signify the strong bond that Cosmopoint College Kota Kinabalu has with industry players. These include Al Quds Travel Sdn Bhd, The Klagan Regency Kota Kinabalu, Concorde Inn KLIA Hotel Sepang, TYH Borneo Tours & Travel Sdn Bhd and Promenade Hotel Kota Kinabalu, in naming a few.

Earlier on this year, Cosmopoint College Kota Kinabalu has also signed on a collaborative partnership with the University of Central Lancashire (UCLan) in offering articulation programmes for Diploma graduates in Accounting and Multimedia Application.

“I sincerely would like to congratulate all of our graduates for their success, even though for some of them their academic pursuit might have ended, but I urge all of them to take forth everything they’ve learnt here and continue to make Cosmopoint College proud,” adds Kamal.

With its core motto, ‘Your Transformative Neighbourhood College,’ Cosmopoint College aims to fulfil the demands of the community needs through practical learning.
